Tanzanian Permanent Secretaries invite Private Sector players to discuss plans and opportunities for Uganda-Tanzania crude oil pipeline.

Covering the Energy, Finance, Industry, Transport, Foreign Affairs and Lands and Housing sectors, the Inaugural Tanzania Oil & Gas Congress will allow you to speak to the relevant Permanent Secretaries together about the issues that matter to your company in an open and honest environment.

These key government officials, alongside Hon. Irene Muloni, Minister of Energy & Minerals Development for the Republic of Uganda, will discuss the business opportunities that the Uganda-Tanzania crude oil pipeline presents for service companies. A project showcase on day one of the Congress will cover the impact of the project on the country and the practical steps to be taken to move the project forward.

The strategic gathering will also provide an insight into regulation surrounding natural gas contracts and how new legislation will impact planned LNG projects in discussions focussed around positioning Tanzania as a competitor in the global LNG market.

Tanzanian Permanent Secretaries already confirmed to attend include:

- Prof. James Mdoe, Acting Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Energy & Minerals
- Doto M. James, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Finance & Planning
- Dr. Adelhelm Maru, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Industry, Trade & Investment
- Dr. Leonard Chamuriho, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Transport & Communication
- Abassador Dr. Aziz Ponary Mlima, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Dr. Juliana Pallangyo, Deputy Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Energy & Minerals
- Dr. Moses Kusiluka, Deputy Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Lands, Housing & Human Settlement

Officially opening the Congress will be Her Excellency Samia Suluhu Hassan, Vice President of the United Republic of Tanzania, who will welcome Zanzibar Minister of Lands, Water, Energy and Environment, Hon. Salama Aboud Talib, to deliver a keynote address.

The Congress, to be held in Dar es Salaam from 11-12 September, is organised by Pietro Fiorentini and CWC Group. Widely supported by industry stakeholders including Total, ENH Mozambique, Drum Cussac, Wentworth Resources, Ponticelli and WiA Group, the event provides a unique opportunity to access and do business with these and many more key companies under one roof.

Networking opportunities to build business relationships include:

- Gala Dinner on Monday 11 September, hosted by Total
- Roundtable Discussions on Tuesday 12 September under Chatham House Rule
- Networking Coffee and Lunch breaks across the two days
